IN THE HIGH COURT OF DELHI AT NEW DELHI

BAIL APPLN. 2104/2024

Petitioner: Ramesh Sharma versus
Respondent: State of NCT of Delhi

Date: 14.08.2024

1. The present application has been filed by the petitioner Ramesh Sharma under Section 439 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (CrPC) seeking grant of regular bail in FIR No. 112/2024 registered under Section 420 and Section 120B of the Indian Penal Code (IPC) at Police Station Connaught Place, New Delhi.

2. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the applicant has been falsely implicated in the present case and has been in continuous judicial custody since 10.02.2024. He contends that the offences alleged are triable by a Magistrate and custodial interrogation is no longer warranted.

3. Learned APP for the State opposes the bail application on the ground of gravity of allegations. However, it is conceded that the investigation is complete and the charge sheet has already been filed before the learned Trial Court.

4. This Court has considered the rival submissions. The applicant has undergone judicial custody for over six months. The trial is likely to take substantial time, and no purpose would be served by prolonged incarceration of the petitioner.

5. In view of the above circumstances, without expressing any opinion on the merits of the case, the petitioner is admitted to bail on furnishing a personal bond in the sum of Rs. 25,000/- with one surety of the like amount to the satisfaction of the learned Trial Court.

6. The petition stands disposed of.
